ERP Project manager

Job Description

| Job title | ERP Project manager |
|---|---|
| Reports to | ERP manager |
| Location | Shoham |
| Responsibilities | • Leading ERP Priority projects• Analysis of business requirements• Characterization and definition of business processes, reports, workflows, interfaces and more• Work process improvement• Functional testing• Processes implementation• Managing system permissions and configurations• Support users from all company departments• User training |
| Requirements | • Bachelor's degree in industrial engineering, information technology, or similar• 3 years experience working with Priority• Priority implementation or development course - advantage• Experience in implementing ERP systems• Familiarity with SQL queries- Advantage• Experience and familiarity with financial, commercial, and logistics processes• service-oriented and team player• Strong project management skills, Systemic view and process thinking, A technical mindset and understanding of complex system and ability to work in a high pace environment• good written and verbal communication (Hebrew and English) |