

Deputy of Safety, Quality and Compliance Manager

Job Description

Reports to	Safety, Quality and Compliance Manager
Location	Israel
Job Purpose	Serves as the deputy of safety, quality and compliance manager, supporting safety, quality and compliance management
Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Playing a key role in managing the safety culture by owning the safety reporting system, and promoting corrective actions and effective communication</li> <li>• Keeping track of safety trends and escorting management of changes in operations</li> <li>• Coordinates audits, develops checklists and communicates with international entities. Actively participating in audits</li> <li>• Supports quality control and compliance across operational departments</li> <li>• Assists in keeping adherence to local and international regulations, to maintain full alignment with all applicable standards and requirements</li> <li>• Assists department managers with compliance-related matters including preparation for audits and documentations update</li> <li>• Proactively tracks audit progress, verifies corrective actions, and ensures timely closures</li> <li>• Supports the safety manager in implementing and managing CAL's Safety Management System (SMS) and Emergency Response Plan (ERP)</li> <li>• Steps in during the safety manager's absence, ensuring seamless continuity in safety issues</li> </ul>
Job requirements
Experience Skills and Personal Attributes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• At least 2 year of experience in aviation, preferably in safety management and/or compliance and/or operations.</li> <li>• Pilot, Dispatcher or Ground OPS background is an advantage.</li> <li>• Proven ability to work with IT systems, especially systems for data management and analysis.</li> <li>• Proven ability to cope with multiple stakeholders and communicate with top management.</li> <li>• Creative yet methodical, with good analytical skills.</li> <li>• Assertive and proactive.</li> <li>• Good team player.</li> <li>• High level of spoken and written English.</li> </ul>